Numerus Fixus

Business Administration

English track

The English track of the Bachelor's programme in Business Administration has an enrolment restriction (numerus fixus). This means the number of students who can enrol in the English track, is limited to 500. The overview below clarifies the steps students with an international prior education need to complete in order to register successfully.

Please note: the information below is only applicable if you wish to apply for the English track. The Dutch track has no numerus fixus.
