About
General	With some 5,000 students and almost 600 staff members, The Faculty of Law of the University of Amsterdam is one of the largest faculties in the Netherlands. It offers students a wide variety of courses and has a strong international orientation, with both a global and a European focus. The Faculty of Law favors an interdisciplinary approach, collaborating with other law schools in the Netherlands and incorporating such fields as economics, psychology, sociology and even health care with the study of law. The faculty maintains strong ties with the corporate world and many staff members are also legal practitioners.

	Social engagement is another characteristic of both staff and students, who frequently offer their services to various law clinics. The faculty is located on Roeterseiland Campus, an open city campus designed to offer future-proof teaching and research facilities. The university offers students many possibilities to develop themselves in or outside the university.
Education	The faculty offers three bachelors programmes (two specialised and one general) and over twenty masters (LLM) programmes. Several of these LLM programmes are taught in English.
Academic tradition	The research undertaken at the Faculty of Law is characterized by its international orientation and its high standards.

Course information	For information about each course, consult the Course Catalogue. Exchange student may enroll for English taught LLB and LLM courses/tracks. Students who choose courses from different programmes run the risk of conflicting classes and exams. Please consult the timetable before registering for a course. Obliged introductory courses In order to participate in the field of European and/or international law, it is required that students have completed an introductory course at their home university in which they obtained a basic knowledge of the field of law concerned. Students who are interested to take courses in the field of European and/or international law without having a background in the field of law concerned, need to take an introductory course offered by the faculty. The International Office will inform the students beforehand about this procedure.
Resit exam	In case students did not pass their exam the first time, it is not possible to take a resit exam at their home university. Resit exams should be taken at the University of Amsterdam.

Course placement	Not guaranteed.

Grades	In the Netherlands grades are awarded on a grading scale from 1-10, 10 being the highest. A passing grade is a 6 or higher. Very good/excellent grades are an 8 or higher. A 'pass' is given for courses/seminars which are not graded, but for which the student has met the requirements. After you have completed your courses, your grades will be published in the UvA's Student Information System (SIS). Please refer to the table below for the UvA Grading Scale. See the grading scheme below.
Transcripts	After we have received all the grades we will make a transcript. We will send a digital transcript, directly via e-mail to the home university and the student. Upon request, we can send a hard copy to the home university.
ECTS	Workload per semester: 30 ECTS and one course is 6 ECTS. 1 ECTS represents 28 hours of study.
