Newsletter October 2019 Alumni Network Conservation and Restoration

Dear Alumni of the UvA, ICN and SRAL Conservation training programmes,

This is the first Newsletter of the Alumni Network Conservation and Restoration to inform you about our activities and invite you to join and support new initiatives!

Launch

Many of you joined for drinks to celebrate the launch of the Alumni Network for Conservation and Restoration with the Amsterdamse-Universiteits Vereniging (AUV) last 3 September 2019. Thank you for supporting the initiative and becoming a member! For those who could not make it or only learn about this new initiative now, find out more under 'membership'.

New Alumni

11 October 2019 20 new UvA Alumni graduated from the two-year MA programme in Conservation and Restoration. Find some of the MA theses via UvA Scripties Online.

In addition, 16 Trainee Conservators have successfully completed the additional two-year Advanced Professional Programme and have entered the field as newly trained conservators. Proficiat!

Find out more about their research projects as presented during the Post-Master Research Symposium Conservation and Restoration

AUV Dag

2 November 2019: Official launch of Alumni Network Conservation and Restoration at AUV Dag 2019.

Although less intimate and only a small part of the entire programme, the official launch of Alumni Network Conservation and Restoration is a reprise for those who were not able to attend in September.
