

PhD defence ceremony setup SPUI125

1. The candidate stands behind the lectern.
2. The chair takes a seat at the table.
3. The committee members take their seats in the front row of the audience and come onto the stage to ask their questions.
4. The paranymphs take their seats on the chairs along the wall.
5. After the deliberation, the chair and two members of the supervisory team take their places on the stage.
6. After the doctorate has been awarded, during the laudatio, the candidate and the paranymphs stand in front of the lectern.

Practical information:

- The maximum capacity of the room is 50 guests.
- Hooks for coats and jackets are available at the back of the room.
- If a reception is held on-site following the ceremony, guests should leave the room through the main entrance and proceed to Handboogstraat 6. All personal belongings have to be taken.

Visitor entrance to SPUI25