We are

Amsterdam's Global University

As an international university, the University of Amsterdam (UvA) is home to students and researchers from a wide variety of cultural and social backgrounds.

The UvA is firmly rooted in Amsterdam, a multicultural European capital with a strongly innovative, entrepreneurial vibe.

Internationalisation within the UvA is primarily intended to enhance the quality of teaching & learning and research and to promote a sense of community among students and staff.

In the field of teaching, the UvA offers relevant curricula in all degree programmes that challenge students to get the best out of themselves by acquiring international insights, knowledge and intercultural skills. Attracting talented international students and researchers will enhance the quality of the degree programmes and research groups.

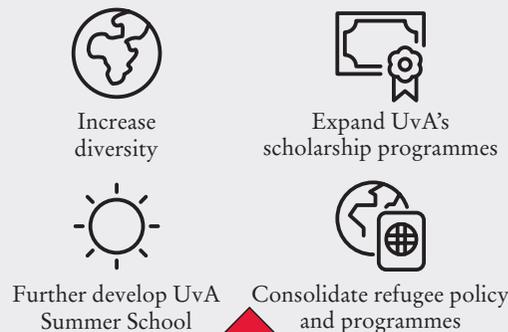

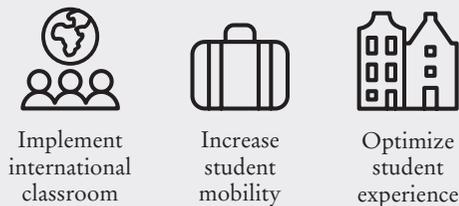

As a leading international university in a multicultural European capital, the UvA plays a pioneering role in developing an international study and work culture in which the diversity of the academic community is regarded as an asset.
