

Frans van Schaik is Professor of Management Accounting at the University of Amsterdam in the Netherlands and Deloitte's Global Leader Government and Public Services Accounting and Auditing. He is an IPSAS (International Public Sector Accounting Standards) consultant, author, professor and advisor in IPSAS implementation to national governments and intergovernmental organizations.

He has been a member of IPSAS Board, the worldwide standard setting body for the financial reporting by governments and intergovernmental organizations, and is a member of the IPSASB Consultative Advisory Group (CAG). He developed and delivered IPSAS-courses in many countries. He is an public sector accounting expert at the IMF and Worldbank.

He holds a PhD, is a CPA and published over 100 articles in the field of accounting, decision support, and auditing.